

BRADLEY WALTERS JOURNEYS PRESENTS

SOUTH PACIFIC ADVENTURE

*Aboard Holland America's Volendam
Visiting Australia and New Zealand*

Many people dream of visiting the South Pacific but trying to find an affordable vacation to Australia and New Zealand is difficult. After much research I feel that we have found an ideal solution. We were able to negotiate some excellent rates on a highly rated cruise ship — the Volendam from Holland American Line which has a wonderful South Pacific itinerary to offer. There are many advantages to taking a cruise in the South Pacific. You unpack once, don't have the hassle of many domestic flights and excellent meals and entertainment is provided on ship. Eating out in Australia and New Zealand is very expensive so much money is saved by eating the delicious multi course meals they serve on board. The journey is also much more relaxing at sea and you visit the very best of both countries. I have visited Australia/New Zealand many times and my favourite way to see these countries is by cruise ship. This cruise is also ideal for those that have been to the South Pacific before and want to return. This journey concentrates on New Zealand which is the more beautiful of the two countries. We do visit the two most important Australian cities, Sydney and Melbourne. Many journeys to the South Pacific from Canada are priced well over $10,000 per person so this tour is a bargain. This deal is so good space is already limited on the Volendam so it is imperative that you book early while there is still space and good cabin selection. The South Pacific is a part of the World that you should experience so why don't you join me.
